What happened

I purchased in January 2022 two veteran cars Volvo P1800 from David Vahey from Olympia WA and I paid 14.000-USD (3000 via PayPal and 11000 via bank transfer). The seller did not send the cars and he sold them thru ebay 2 months ago (I just found the auctions). He is not responding to my or shipping company phone calls and e-mails. I do not have money neither the cars. I can provide entire communication with the seller, with shipping company, bank transfer confirmation.

Your Next Steps

TO DO:

If you paid with an electronic bank transfer or withdrawal:

- Contact your bank immediately. Ask if the bank can stop the transaction or recover your money from the person's or company's account. Tell the bank the reason you want to stop the transfer, and give them the bank account number your money was sent to. Don't wait. Let your bank know as soon as you can.
- If the bank won't help you, file a complaint with the CFPB at consumerfinance.gov/complaint.

General Advice:

- You can find tips and learn more about bad business practices and scams at consumer.ftc.gov.
- You also can file a report with your state attorney general.

What Happens Next

- Your report will help us in our efforts to protect all consumers. Thank You!
- We can't resolve your individual report, but we use reports to investigate and bring cases against fraud, scams, and bad business practices.
- We share your report with our law enforcement partners who also use reports to investigate and bring cases against fraud, scams, and bad business practices.
- We use reports to spot trends, educate the public, and provide data about what is happening in your community. You can check out what is going on in your state and metro area by visiting ftc.gov/exploredata.
- Investigations and cases do take time, but when we bring cases, we try to get money back for people. Check out ftc.gov/refunds to see recent FTC cases that resulted in refunds.
